The Stagecoach Reservoir Marina is under new ownership as of this year. The Thurston Family of Oak Creek bought the business to run as a family. Working out there on a daily basis to help you with all your camping and fishing needs, you will find Tom and Tami, and their daughters Greta and Leona Thurston. This is a local family who has been dedicated to serving South Routt and Steamboat Area communities for over 15 years. They are well known for their competitive dog sledding and dog sled tour business as well as their volunteer work for many organizations in the area.
